

The purpose of this contract is to outline the expectations and guidelines that come along with having a social media account. By signing this contract, we agree to respect the rules listed below.

With my new social media account, I agree to:

Protect my own privacy

- I will use privacy settings.
- I won't share my password with friends.
- I won't connect with people I don't know.

Remember that what I post is a reflection of me

- I will always treat others with respect.
- I won't post hurtful or embarrassing messages or images.
- I will tell an adult about any harassing or bullying messages posted by others.

Follow the "What would Grandma Say?" rule

- I won't post anything on social media that I would not want grandma, a teacher, or my future boss to see.

Respect guidelines

- I will accept friend requests from my parents.
- I will respect the time limits put on social media use.

As your parent, I agree to:

Ensure safety from a distance

- I may connect with you on any of your active social media accounts.
- I may not comment or post on your pages without asking for permission.
- I may not connect with any of your friends or post/comment on any of their pages without your permission.
- I won't post about or tag you in posts without your permission.
- I won't bring up topics from your social media unless there are safety issues or concerns; social media is personal and my role is to supervise for safety.
