National 988 Lifeline Set to Launch July 16, Provident Behavioral Health is State and National Backup Call Center

July 5, 2022 (St. Louis, MO) — A transformative step forward in behavioral health support is set to take place on July 16 with the launch of the national 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline dialing code. Provident Behavioral Health, which manages one of the oldest and most-respected call centers in the country, will answer calls for Missouri as a local call center, and as the sole state backup center. Provident will also serve as one of only 12 backup centers for the national line.

“988 is more than just an easy-to-remember number – it’s a direct connection to compassionate, accessible care and support for anyone experiencing a mental health-related crisis like thoughts of suicide, mental health or substance use crisis, or any other kind of emotional distress,” said Kevin Drollinger, executive director of Provident. “People can also dial 988 if they are worried about a loved one who may need support.”

There are urgent realities driving the need for more easily-accessible crisis services.

“The good news is, the Lifeline works for people in distress, and the easy-to-remember 988 dialing code will make it simpler for people to access our services,” said Lindsay Jeffries, Provident’s director of clinical services. “Provident has been a trusted voice on the other end of crisis calls for over 60 years. We have a best-in-class program, with the experience and knowledge to help people through their most difficult moments.”
